To whom it may concern,

I, Elliot Grove, President of Raindance International Film Festival, authorize Dr. Luba Balagova Kandour, Director and senior partner of Sindika Productions and Consulting Partnership of the United Kingdom, as an exclusive and official representative of our Film Festival for the following purposes.

She is empowered to negotiate and arrange all aspects of organizing an affiliate Raindance Film Festival in the Russian Federation.

Furthermore she is fully authorized to negotiate and conclude binding arrangements with official government agencies and/or private corporations for sponsorship of such events as related to all aspects of international film festivals including the establishment of film making workshops and courses in association with her Sindika Film Production and Consulting partnership.

Dr. Balagova is authorized through her Sindika Consulting to preselect outstanding feature films for presentation at our Raindance Independent Film Festival venues in London, United Kingdom. This would include travel and hotel expenses, promotion parties at the Festival and any other requirements for the successful participations of selected films.

This authorization is given on 7 January 2016 and valid henceforth for five years.

Sincerely

Elliot Grove
